

Tips for Parents

1. Help your child set a realistic reading goal.
2. Establish a regular time for reading.
3. Share stories at every opportunity.
4. Show genuine interest in the stories and programs your child discovers during the summer. Attend special programs.
5. Appreciate all books your child selects, including "easy" as well as non-fiction books.
6. Read to your child.
7. Read yourself. Your example matters.
